VCE Unit 4 Health and Human Development

Time Allocation
This unit of work will consist of approximately 100 hours of which at least 50 hours will be class time. To complete this unit of work satisfactorily, students must complete each of the following learning outcomes.

Learning Outcomes

Outcome 1
The student should be able to analyse factors contributing to variations in health status between Australia and developing countries, and evaluate progress towards the United Nations’ Millennium Development Goals.

Outcome 2
The student should be able to describe and evaluate programs implemented by international and Australian government and non-government organisations, and analyse the interrelationships between health, human development and sustainability.

Assessment Tasks

1. Global Health and Human Development
The student is required to describe and evaluate programs implemented by international and Australian government and non-government organisations, and analyse the interrelationships between health, human development and sustainability.

Weighting: This task is worth 25% of Unit 3 course work
Time allocated to task: 1 period
Due: Term 2, Week 11

2. Sustainable Development Goals
The student is required to discuss the role of the National Health Priority Areas in improving Australia’s health status.

Weighting: This task is worth 25% Unit 3 course work
Time allocated to task: 1 period
Due: Term 3, Week 4

3. Australian government and non-government organisations
The student is required to describe and evaluate programs implemented by international and Australian government and non-government organisations, and analyse the interrelationships between health, human development and sustainability.

Weighting: This task is worth 50% of Unit 3 course work
Time allocated to task: 2 periods
Due: Term 3, Week 8

4. End of Year Examination
The student is required to apply knowledge and understanding of all the key knowledge and key skills that underpin the outcomes in Units 3 and 4.

Weighting: This task is worth 50% of the overall grade
Time allocated to task: 135 minutes
Due: Unit 4 VCAA Examinations commence Term 4, Week 4 from 01/11/2017